

Obituary

Born: Saturday, September 27, 1952

Died: Sunday, November 25, 2018

Sondra G. Barlow Fryman, 66, wife of Harold S. Fryman, Sr., passed away Sunday, November 25, 2018 at the University of Kentucky Medical Center.

Born September 27, 1952 in Nicholas County to Ann Reeves Revoletti, of Paris, and the late Gerald Barlow and raised by her grandmother, Beatrice Booth, she was a loving & devoted homemaker, an amazing cook, a member of the Nicholas County Homemakers and the Headquarters United Methodist Church.

Also surviving are her 2 children: Kevin (Tina) Ellington and Mindy Ellington, both of Cynthiana; 3 step-sons: Harold S. (Rita) Fryman, Jr., of Millersburg, Pete Fryman, of Lexington, and Michael (Tammy) Fryman, of Winchester; 2 brothers: Jerry Henry and Mike McCall; 5 grandchildren: Hillary (Troy) Jenkins, Cody (Allison) Ellington, Crystan (Brandon) Ellington, Madeline Stidham and Bryson Curtis; 13 step-grandchildren: Erin Fryman Hillard, Mark Fryman, Chelsea, Sara & Alexis Fryman, Allisha, Desiree, Amanda, Ashley, Dalton & Cheyanne Fryman, Delanna Curtis and Chastity Sexton; a great-granddaughter, Graylin Rose Adams, and soon-to-be great-grandson, Jackson Paul Ellington; a number of step-great-grandchildren and a long list of friends and family.

In accordance with Sondra's wishes, there will be no funeral services following cremation.

Service Summary

No services to be held

Location: - Not available -